

AIRFINANCE JOURNAL
AWARDS2021

Convention Centre
Dublin
5 May 2022

Welcome

Managing Director's letter

Airfinance Journal has once again revamped its Awards judging format and categories of awards to further differentiate ourselves from the competition, while ensuring our winners are the most deserving in the sector. We have also secured a new venue for 2022 at The Convention Centre Dublin to co locate with our Airfinance Journal conference, 4-6th May 2022

Unlike other awards ceremonies, which rely exclusively on their own views, we work with the collective voice of the global industry through our judges. We are cautious to avoid bias, so the judges will not vote in categories in which their former employers are nominated. We believe our international judging panel provides the Airfinance Journal Awards adjudication process an added layer of independence and substance.

Airfinance Journal continues to improve our awards format because you, the industry, voiced your concerns and we agree – there are too many awards ceremonies out there and this is devaluing the aviation finance sector.

Some ceremonies, for instance, lack transparency in the award selection process. Also, some of you have voiced concern that certain awards ceremonies are influenced by their sponsors. Our independent judging panel is only part of our improved offering.

We are also introducing new categories of awards, reflecting the dynamism and strength of the aviation finance sector. These include three new ESG categories - Best ESG initiative of the Year, Environmental/ESG leadership Deal of the Year and Sustainability financing Deal of the Year.

Airfinance Journal is grateful for your help and ongoing commitment in recognising the very best in the aviation finance industry. We look forward to seeing you for a night of celebration and recognition in Dublin on the 5th May 2022.
